

Lesson 25

End of Days Prophetic Signs

End of Day Prophetic Periods

In order to better understand the prophecies of the End of Times and the End of Days, Jesus gives us an overview of events to happen from his crucifixion to the Second Advent of Christ. This overview occurs in the Book of Matthew, where Jesus gives prophecies of things that will occur in both the 1260 years that the anti-Christ has to make war on the Saints of God, otherwise known as the Dark Ages and of those events that will herald in the Great War, the Great Tribulation, and the Second Advent of Christ, otherwise known as the End of Days.

During the Dark Ages, the Church of Rome, attempts to justify its actions of the persecution of the Saints of God, through the Trials of Inquisition. These mock trials caused millions of innocent people to be tortured and murdered, in the Name of God, by labeling them Heretics and Witches. As horrific a time as this is, it is only the people of Europe that are subjected to this ordeal during that 1260 year period from 538 A.D. to 1798 A.D.

Purpose of Prophecies

Jesus' prophecies of events of the End of Days are to point to and give evidence of God, and have as their purpose the foretelling of the Second Advent of Christ, and the establishment of God's Kingdom on Earth.

The End of Days is those last few years prior to the Second Advent of Christ. Within those years a Great War will occur, and the resulting Great Tribulation. It is during the time of the Great Tribulation that God's Truth will be manifest, through the preaching by the 144,000 Saints of God, and because of them millions will turn away from those churches that are founded upon Satan's False Gospel. Many of the prophecies given by Jesus are attributable to these periods of times; therefore I will attempt to reveal which time period each applies to as I give explanation of the prophecies.

First Period: From Jesus's Death to 1798 A.D.

In the End of Times, the first time period includes events that are foretold from the death of Jesus until the power of the anti-Christ religion is taken away from it, which occurs when Napoleon has the Pope arrested and confiscates the wealth of the Church of Rome in 1798 A.D.

Second Period: From 1798 A.D. to the Great War

The Second Time Period, starts from the End of the power of the anti-Christ, 1798, to make war on the Saints of God, and the resurgence of God's True Word in the world of Man, and includes those events leading up to the Great War.

Third Period: The Events of the Great War

These events include those that occur during the Great War, and events that will occur leading up to and being the cause of the Great Tribulation.

Fourth Period: The Great Tribulation

The Time of the Great Tribulation, and those events that will occur during this time of extreme pain and suffering of all who do not give true and correct worship of God, and then leading up to the Second Advent of Christ.

Fifth Period: God's Kingdom on Earth

After the events of the Great Tribulation are given prophecy by Jesus, he gives prophecy of those things that God will cause to happen that returns Man to the perfection that had been Adam's before his sin.

Jesus' First Prophetic Sign

Temple's Destruction

*And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. Matthew 24:1

If you read Matthew Chapter 23 you will understand that Jesus was distraught after his flare of anger at the money changers and other merchants and those who had turned the temple from a place of worship into a bazaar, therefore the disciples went with Jesus to try to cheer him up.

*And Jesus said unto them, "See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down. Matthew 24:2

The disciples are pointing out the buildings of the Temple complex and indicating how beautiful they are. Jesus tells them that all that they are looking upon will be torn down, so much so that not one stone will be left atop another.

When shall these things be?

*And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, "Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" Matthew 24:3

The disciples came unto him privately: What this means is that not all of the apostles came to him to ask what he meant, but only a few. The names of those who came to Jesus to learn more are given in the following verses.

Those Apostles that inquired

And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, "Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!" And Jesus answering said unto him, "Seest thou these great buildings?

There shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.” And as he (Jesus) sat upon the Mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?” Mark 13:1-4

When Jesus walked about teaching, there were always the twelve apostles, but there were also many others, all of whom were disciples of Jesus, wanting to hear his words. What this verses are telling me, is that the following prophecies are being told only to those four named above.

Surprised by his words, the disciples inquire privately of Jesus, “When shall these things be?” In history we know this prophecy of the destruction of the Temple occurs or is fulfilled in about 70 A.D. when the Romans tear the temple down.

And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? The next several verses in the Book of Matthew are the answer that Jesus gives to this question.

Time Period: In the aspect of tearing down the physical brick and mortar temple in Jerusalem, this would only apply to the First time period; however, if you understand that the Temple is only a symbolism for the Commandments and Laws of God, and of God’s Kingdom on Earth, this prophecy can apply to all of the first three time periods. Within these three time periods, the anti-Christ and then the False Prophet work to destroy, not only the true worship of God, but to blaspheme God’s moral character as well.

During this first period, the Dark Ages, the Church of Rome attempts to destroy all that is of God and worshiped, including the murder of any and all who give worship to God as God commands. During this time the Church of Rome makes having or possessing the Bible or any part of it a crime punishable by death.

Second Prophetic Sign

The Deceivers

Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, “I am Christ; and shall deceive many.” Matthew 24:4-5

Many will profess to be Christ, or profess to preach the Teachings of Jesus, but will preach lies and deceive Man; and many people will be fooled into giving worship based upon these false preachers and be deceived by their false gospel.

Remember: to come in the Name of Jesus, does not just mean that they will actually call themselves Jesus, but they will profess to preach the Gospel of Jesus, when in fact they preach a distorted or polluted variation of what Jesus Taught.

This is not something that is yet to happen, but has been going on even while Jesus yet walk the earth, as well as during the 1260 years that the anti-Christ is given to make war on the Saints of God, and during all generations of Man since.

The greatest offenders of this are the Popes of the Roman Catholic Church who all profess to be Christ hidden under the flesh of another. As you may recall, I revealed this to you earlier, but I give it to you again here as a reminder.

The Bishop of Rome is not only the representative of God Jesus Christ, but he is Jesus Christ himself, hidden under the veil of the flesh. Does the Bishop of Rome speak: it is Jesus Christ who speaks.

This was published by the Archbishop of Venice prior to becoming Pope Pious X, in 1903 A.D. when he became the 257th Pope of the Church of Rome, but it is understood from even earlier in history that those Pope's that lived before Pious X considered themselves to be substitute for Jesus if not Jesus himself.

Time Period: Even though these verses are a foretelling of the anti-Christ and the Dark Ages, today there have been several who have professed to be Jesus, and many have believed and followed them and their false gospels, therefore these verses apply to both the First and Second periods of prophecy.

Third Prophetic Sign

Rumours of War

*And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. Matthew 24:6

Mankind has been warring against each other since Cain murdered Able, so these things are expected. What Jesus is saying, is that these smaller wars, are not the Great War that will be the last war Man will fight, but merely a prelude to it.

All wars ever fought by Man have at their core the overriding war between God and Satan. Even though there may not be any recognizable force of Good against Evil fighting each other, there would be no war between Men if not for the war between God and Satan. Once God removes Satan from existence and only the Saints of God and the Heavenly Beings remain, then all wars will be removed as well.

Time Period: That these things are happening today tells us that this prophecy applies to the First and Second time periods.

Fourth Prophetic Sign

Calamities of Nature

*For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Matthew 24:7-8

What Jesus is saying here is that there will be many wars and times of tribulation throughout the years of what has become known as the Dark Ages, which is the time of the 1260 years that the anti-Christ has to make war upon the Saints of God, as well as those times leading up to the Great War. During this period of time, the Dark Ages, wars, pestilence and abject poverty will prevail for the vast majority of the people of Europe, and then in the End of Days, for the entire world will know these tribulations.

Time Period: It is this long horrific period of time that Jesus is giving warning about. However, since the Pope was removed from the Vatican in 1798 there have been several more wars, big and small, so this prophecy again applies to both the First and Second time periods.

Fifth Prophetic Sign

Murdering the Saints of God

*Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. Matthew 24:9

The Name of God is more than a name such as, "I Am" or "Jehovah", it is a reference to what gives definition to who God is, his, personal honor, his personality, and his moral character, and these things are defined by the Ten Commandments and the Morality taught to us by Jesus.

The "YOU" spoken of in this verse are the Saints of God, as defined by Jesus, "Those who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ."

These persecutions occurred by the Temple Elders in the years just after the Crucifixion of Jesus, then again by the Emperors of the Roman Empire, and lastly during the Dark Ages by the Church of Rome, but ended after Napoleon removed the Pope from the Vatican, which was in the year 1798 which is the last year of the 1260 year time prophecy as given in the Book of Daniel.

Two Witnesses of God

*And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. Revelation 11:3-4

Do not think that Satan does not currently persecute the Saints of God? The only difference from the time of the Dark Ages till the present is that by time the Pope is put under arrest, all but a handful of the Saints of God are left, so successful has the Church of Rome been at destroying and silencing the Saints of God.

The Book of Revelation tells us that the Two Witnesses of God will be murdered at the end of the 1260 years they have to testify of God which supports the above in saying that the Church of Rome successfully murdered off all but a handful of the Saints of God before its 1260 year time period ends.

The Two Witness of God are the unpolluted Bible or Books of the Prophets, and the men and women that lived during the 1260 years that the anti-Christ had to make war upon the Saints of God, that are defined as the Saints of God.

The Beast shall kill them

*And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. Revelation 11:7

The Bottomless Pit is the mouth of Satan from which lies and deception pour out continuously. I will not give further explanation of these now, but I devote the entire next lesson to an in depth discussion of the Two Witnesses of God.

The beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit, (Satan), the Harlot, (the anti-Christ) sits on the back of the beast, and kills the two witnesses, that have finished their testimony. What this is telling me is that after 1260 years of trying, the anti-Christ in the end will finally kill the Two Witnesses, my problem with this is how can I acquiescent the killing of the Two Witnesses with their being the Bible and the Saints of God?

Are You a Saint of God?

This should be an evidence to you that if you think yourself a Christian, yet you are not being persecuted and neither are any other Christians, that perhaps that is because, a Christian as defined since the 300's A.D. is not a Saint of God. Those who keep the Commandments of God, (all ten of them), and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. Do you qualify as a Saint of God as this definition is given? Do you keep the Commandments of God, all ten of them? If you observe the Sabbath on Sunday, the first day of the week, then you do not meet this definition, therefore, you are not a Saint of God, but are in fact one who has the Mark of the Beast.

A Brief History

Satan makes war immediately after the crucifixion of Jesus, through his influence and control over the Temple Elders, then after the temple is destroyed, Satan continues his war via the Emperors of Rome beginning with Nero, then Satan continues his war against the Saints of God through his false religion the anti-Christ, the Church of Rome, then in the End of Days Satan will give the power and authority from the anti-Christ to Satan's Godless religion, Liberalism, otherwise known as the False Prophet.

Word of God is Truth

Virtually all who I have spoken to, who call themselves Christian, believe that they are included in those that are the Saints of God, but when I refer them to this definition of who a Saint of God is, they reject it, even though this definition is given by the Word of Jesus, in a vision to the apostle John and written down in the Holy Scripture, the Book of Revelation.

Because the Word of God is Truth you must not reject it. If what God says in the Bible is contrary to what you believe, you must accept God's Truth, and disregard what you thought was true. If you don't then you are falling into the same sin that Adam and Eve fell into. They accepted Satan's Lies over the Word of God, and in this sin, they were removed from paradise. If you accept Satan's Lies, then God will remove you from his children that are in obedience to his law. To be so removed is to know eternal death.

And shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. Satan makes war only against those who are the Children of God, the reason Christians are not persecuted today is because current day Christians do not fit Jesus' definition of what it takes to be a Saint of God. They give lip service to being followers of Christ, but even so they engage in practices that place them in opposition to the Law of God.

The Saints of God

And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. Revelation 12:17

Here is the patience of the Saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. Revelation 14:12

In the above two verses Jesus gives definition to who the Saints of God are.

As you can see both definitions requires that you keep the Commandments of God, (Ten Commandments), and believe in and live by the Teachings of Jesus Christ and believe that Jesus is God in the flesh of a man.

One of the things that keep the Christians of today apart from being a Saint of God is their observance of the Sabbath on the First Day of the Week, (Sunday). In Genesis Chapter 2, God is very specific that his day of rest is the Seventh Day, and then in Exodus Chapter 20:8, God included the Seventh Day as his Fourth Commandment. Then is Exodus 20:10 God comes right out and tells us, “The Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God.” Either you believe the Word of God and obey, or you do not. If you come up short in this definition, then you are not a Saint of God, and therefore your worship is in vain.

As Babes Accept the Word of God

*At that time Jesus answered and said, “I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Matthew 11:25

God wants that we come to him and his Word as a babe, accepting what he says as true, without giving resistance because of a supposed understanding that you might already have.

What Jesus is saying is when you read or hear the word of God you must accept the word of God as the truth. If something you believe to be true is shown false by the Word of God, then you must reject what you believe and accept that the Word of God is truth.

This is how a child gains understanding of scripture. A child will accept what his parents or other adults tell them as truth because the child does not have any knowledge of their own to compare it to. So if the parent tells the child something that is not supported by scripture, then the child will accept this error as truth, which is how Satan extends his lies generation after generation.

Come to the Word as a Child

God wants you to come to his Word as a child. Forget all that you know, rely on God’s Word as the truth.

Remember God's Truism: "If it is spoken by God it will be found in God's Holy Gospel, and therefore it is true. If it is not found in God's Holy Gospel then it is a lie." So if you do not fit the above definition of who a Saint of God is, and you love God, then don't you consider it wise to do whatever you have to do to bring yourself into that which falls within the definition that Jesus gives, after all Jesus is God, so if he spoke it, it is true. Peter gives support to this above understanding with the following verses.

Milk of the Word

*Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speaking's, as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, which ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. I Peter 1:1-3

When you put aside those entire things that you think you know, and look to the Word of God as a child, then you will see God's Truth. This means to take the Word of God as you study diligently the Holy Scripture, as if you are hearing the words for the first time. Do not give thought to any lifelong beliefs, but accept the Word of God as the truth, without comparing it to what you think you already know.

Remember: Satan lies; and Jesus tells us that the whole world will believe Satan's Lies and give worship according to those lies.

The Whole World in wickedness

*And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. I John 5:19

Do you think that you are somehow immune from Satan's Lies and that the worship you give is to the God of Creation, when Jesus tells us just the opposite?

Revealed unto babes

*I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou has hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even So, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. Matthew 11:25-26

You see, you are of the wise and the prudent, and God has hidden his truth from you, but when you look to the Word of God as a child, eager to learn, with no previous misconceptions, seeing the Word of God as being the Truth, then you will see God's Truth and know his Glory.

Time Period: With all these explanations that I have shown to you, it can then be understood that this prophecy applies to both the First and Second time periods.

Sixth Prophetic Sign

Many shall be offended

*And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. Matthew 24:10

If you believe that you know the true Word of God, and someone comes up to you and tells you that what you believe is in fact Satan's Lies, you will, no doubt, be offended by this person. How dare he tell you that you are wrong and you are deceived of Satan?

This will cause you to hate this person, who only wants to show you God's Truth. But you believe you already know God's Truth, so you reject the words of this person, and many will even go so far as to have this person imprisoned and tortured, and killed.

This verse applies directly to the above verses. If you believe what you have been told all your life as being the truth, then you read such as I am presenting to you here, then you may be offended, because what I am writing does not agree with what you think to be true.

To be "offended," is to not believe the truth even when it is shown to you in scripture as being God's True Word. Because the scripture doesn't agree with what you believe, you get angry, "offended," at the one who has the gall of revealing your inequities. So angry may you become that you will cause that person to be taken up by those who work to destroy God's truth.

This occurred during the 1260 years of the prophecy given by Daniel, where children would give up their parents and siblings, and where parents would give up their children, where neighbor would give up neighbor, to the Trials of Inquisition, which would for the most part result in torcher and death of those given up. Such is the Way of Satan to cause people who otherwise should love one another, to turn them over to those who work to destroy the Saints of God.

Trials of Inquisition

This was the case during the Dark Ages, during the Reign of Terror inflicted upon the people of Europe by the Roman Catholic Church which is revealed in the Book of Daniel as the anti-Christ. Do you remember from history, the Trials of Inquisition that the Church of Rome used those trials to give legitimacy to its war upon the Saints of God? The Church of Rome labeled those that opposed its pagan practices and blasphemous teachings, as being Heretics and Witches, and then caused them to be tortured, and murdered.

This war against the Saints of God was not waged only by the Church of Rome alone but also by the Kings and nobility of Europe which is why those nations are considered as being part of the anti-Christ.

Despite the centuries long efforts of Satan, the anti-Christ and the False Prophet, in the End of Days, with the return of Jesus Christ, Satan and all his allies will be defeated, as it is prophesied in the following.

Rock of God's Wrath

*Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. Daniel 2:34-35

Remember: In the Book of Daniel the above verses; which are Prophecy of the Second Advent of Christ.

As you may recall from my previous explanation, the image from the above verses, is the multi-metal statue from King Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and that the feet and the ten toes of the statue represents the ten nations of Europe that will arise out of the ashes of the Roman Empire. The stone cut out without hands, is symbolic of the Christ, and that it will be Christ who destroys the anti-Christ as it is shown to include those ten nations. Therefore, in the End of Days, those seven nations that remain from the original ten will be destroyed and punished for their part in giving power to the anti-Christ, which is the False Religion of the Church of Rome.

Time Period: It remains to be seen if these sorts of things of tortures and death of the Saints of God will occur once more in the End of Days that we are now living in, therefore, I believe that this prophecy applies only to the First time period. Even though the False Prophet will endeavor to persecute the Saints of God, it will not actually torture or murder them; at least I don't believe it will, though I could be wrong on this. Only time will tell.

Seventh Prophetic Sign

Many Shall be Deceived

*And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. Matthew 24:11

When you are convinced that you already know God's True Word, but are in fact deceived by Satan's lies, you will open yourself up to the preaching's of Satan's False Gospel, which will further remove you from knowing God's Truth.

With this acceptance of Satan's lies, morality of the masses will disintegrate society into hatred and distrust one for the other, and will replace God's love of one person for his neighbors; even children will come to hate their parents and siblings which is an unnatural state of the human condition.

Time Period: Because of the Iniquities (Sin) that abound, respect of others around you, will be a lost concept. This is very evident in each of our personal lives today as it was in the Dark Ages, therefore this prophecy applies to both the First and Second time periods.

Love Shall Wax Cold

*And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. Matthew 24:12

If on the other hand you stand up for God's Morality, and keep your faith, and endure through your life, even in times of tribulation and sorrow, then you will be saved.

To "Endure," means to stand fast against Satan's lies and temptations, and to remain true to God's Morality and to give worship to God as he God commands.

To Wax Cold, is to lose the natural love which is normal for two people to have between one another, such as between Parent and Child, or between Siblings. This kind of love is manifest in the respect that you have and show for each other. In the End of Days, as it was in the years of the 1260 year prophecy, love will wax cold.

You only need to look at all the hatred and violence taking place in the Middle East, and in the cities of the world, to see Satan's hand at work. Will you give into Satan's attempts at making you fill up with hatred for your neighbors, or will you look to God/Jesus and the lessons of love, tolerance, mercy, respect, and kindness. Satan wants that Man hates and kills each other, don't give into his ways, but turn to the Way of God.

Time Period: Because of the Iniquities (Sin) that abound, respect of others around you, will be a lost concept. This is very evident in each of our personal lives today as it was in the Dark Ages, therefore this prophecy applies to both the First and Second time periods.

And Because Iniquity Shall Abound

*But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Matthew 24:13

There have been many False Prophets over the years, not just in the Pope's, but also in other religions that call themselves Christian, Jewish and Muslim, and there have even been those who have said, "I am Jesus," and many have followed and worshiped them. But they do not give worship to God as he God commands. Their doctrine is not of God, but false doctrine. These are of Satan, and are being used as a way of keeping you from giving your worship to the God of Creation. Do to the preaching of theses False Christ's you will be filled with iniquity (sin) for they will pull you away from the true and correct way of giving worship to God.

Remember: if you worship God in anyway which adds to or diminishes from that which God has outlined in the first Four of the Ten Commandments; you are not worshiping God at all.

If God did not speak it, then it is a lie. If what you believe to be true and correct in the worship of God, cannot be supported by anything found in the Holy Scripture, then it is most likely a lie. Trust in God's Word for it is the truth.

Just look around you. If those religions that call themselves Christian really were of God, then do you think there would be so much hatred, violence, and lack of Pity or Mercy in the world? Jesus taught that to be of God, we need to have Love, Peace, Pity, Mercy etc. in our hearts. That there is so little of these qualities in the people of our time, tells me that they are blinded from God's Truth, and therefore engage in anti-God practices.

Consider This: if God is not in your heart, then you will know anger, you cannot know anger if you are of God. If you feel anger then you do not know God. God wants to have a personal and intimate relationship with you. For this you do not need a church, a congregation, or even a preacher. You only need an understanding of the Ten Commandments, and the Teachings of Jesus Christ, and are not shy about giving prayer to God.

If you keep your worship of God as it is spelled out in the Ten Commandments, as well as the Teachings of Jesus, which bring to completion the laws of God and the Prophets, and you keep steadfast to God's True Word, despite the pressures of others around you, then God gives promise in the above that you will be saved in Jesus.

Time Period: Because of the Iniquities (Sin) that abound, respect of others around you, will be a lost concept. This is very evident in each of our personal lives today as it was in the Dark Ages, therefore this prophecy applies to both the First and Second time periods.

Eighth Prophetic Sign

The Holy Gospel Shall Be Preached

*And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. Matthew 24:14

Preached in all the world

In the Dark Ages, the Gospel of God is kept alive by the Two Witnesses, which I have suggested are the Saints of God that live through those centuries, and the unpolluted written Books of the Prophets, which we call the Bible.

This verse gives support that one of the Two Witnesses is in fact God's Holy Gospel as written down in the Books of the Prophets, both the Old and New Testaments, as well as that a man or men are involved in preaching God's Holy Gospel to the people of that time.

The key to understanding this above verse and prophecy is found in the words, "All the world." During the Dark Ages, the Word of God was preached, but only in Europe, and then only in whispers. The above verse is saying that the end shall not come until the Word of God is preached in the entire world.

This web page that you are currently reading, is one of the ways that God has caused that God's True Word is being preached all over the entire world today, therefore, it is now that the End is Come.

For a Witness unto all nations

This above verse is talking about the End of Days which we are now in, and not another reference to the Dark Ages and the Two Witnesses of God.

As I have shown earlier, the Two Witnesses of God are; First the Saints of God who removed themselves to live in the wilderness, and gave testimony of the Word of God through the 1260 years of the Dark Ages, and Second God's Holy Gospel, which is what the Saints of God preached during those years and into today.

Everlasting Gospel of God

*And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Saying with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." Revelation 14:6-7

The everlasting gospel is a reference to God's Holy Gospel, and his truth that lies within. As these pages that you have been reading has shown, the Bible as it is during my life time, has words, input there by Satan, that have changed the true meaning of God to that of distortions.

This verse is telling me that this angel will have in his possession the Holy Gospel in its true form and meaning and it will be from this that he will preach God's truth to the entire world. Once this unaltered Holy Gospel is shown to us, and we having then seen God's truth, we will fall away from our false churches and traditions, and turn to God-Jesus and his true worship. It is this Angel who has been preaching to me, and through me you can hear what he has shown me by reading these words on this Web Page.

The above verse, Matthew 24:14, is also a reference to the above two verses. The Holy Gospel of God will be preached in the End of Days, as is prophesized, but the true and full Gospel of God will first be given back to the world by the above angel in heaven.

I Ask, Why?

Let's give consideration to what God is trying to tell us in these two verses from the Book of Revelation, for they are most profound. When I first read these verses, I asked these questions:

"Why does the angel in heaven have the everlasting gospel of God?"

"Don't we have God's Holy Gospel in that which we call the Bible?"

"Because we have the Bible, why is it necessary that this angel preaches to us?"

"In that God is having this angel preach from the holy gospel, does this then mean that that which is in the Bible is false or at the very least polluted with Satan's lies?"

Question: "Why does the angel in heaven have the everlasting gospel of God?"

I can only assume from this that Satan has in some way managed to place lies in the pages of the Bible. I must also assume that this then is why God needs that we on the Earth are preached the unpolluted holy gospel by an angel in heaven, which God has kept in heaven away from Satan's corruption.

If all of this is true, that means that those who call themselves Christians are deceived, and that which they believe to be true concerning how we are to give True and Correct worship of God, is in fact polluted by Satan's lies.

Question: "Don't we have God's Holy Gospel in that which we call the Bible?"

If this is true concerning the Angel in Heaven preaching the everlasting gospel of God to we who live on the Earth in these the End of Days, then I have to give testimony to the fact that we need wait no longer for this sign of the End of Days to come, for I have learned all that I have of God's True Word, not by any intelligence of my own, but because God has revealed his truth to me. I therefore believe that it was not so much God who has been showing me these truth's but this angle in heaven spoken of in the above two verses.

Question: "Because we have the Bible, why is it necessary that this angel preaches to us?"

I then must accept that it was not so much God who showed me all that I have learned, but this angel preaching to me. Knowing this I have to accept the power of what Jesus revealed to the Apostle John in: "Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters."

Do you understand what these words are telling us? "The hour of his judgment is come:" We no longer have to wait, because with the preaching of this angel, the time of judgment is come. Time is up, repent your sins, ask God for his forgiveness of your having committed those sins, and take the time and effort to be in the Spirit of God. Only those who are in the Spirit of God, (who are the Saints of God), shall be raptured up into the clouds with Jesus, all others will have to face Judgment and give answer for the wickedness of their lives.

Then Shall the End Come

*And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. Matthew 24:14

So you will know, the words, then shall the end come, is not a reference to the Second Advent of Jesus, but that the End of Days will be upon us, or the Great War is not far off.

“In that God is having this angel preach from the holy gospel, does this then mean that that which is in the Bible is false or at the very least polluted with Satan’s lies?”

When the angel in heaven begins to preach the everlasting gospel of God to we who are on the earth, then the End of Days will have come. When this happens, we will be in the End of Days. I know this has happened because all this that I have written and placed on this Web Page, I did because God gave me to do so. It is this angel that has been preaching to me; therefore we are now in the End of Days for they have come.

Time Period: Even though I give comment on how these verses relate to the years that I live in, and the morals of my time, these verses are also of the times of the Dark Ages, and the tribulations caused by the anti-Christ which is the Church of Rome. As such, this prophecy applies to both the First and Second periods.

How Satan Lies

A Curious Inquiry

*Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? Genesis 3:1

In scripture God has shown us how Satan tells some of his lies. As you may recall, the very first prophecy was made by God himself in the Garden of Eden. You all know the story, but let’s look at it again in the light of Satan’s attempts to deceive Man, thus causing Man to leave the worship of the true God.

As we all know, the serpent is Lucifer or Satan, the fallen foe, in disguise. This makes me wonder if before Satan’s lie to Eve, if God allowed the angles to take on the form of the beasts of the field, or if in doing so, Lucifer was already in violation of God’s laws before he even spoke a word to Eve. One thing you should keep in mind, Satan was telling lies and fermenting rebellion in Heaven long before he told lies to Adam and Eve. It is not just Man whom he has deceived, but the Angels and other heavenly beings as well.

The word “subtle” is translated from the Hebrew word, “Aruwm,” which mean, clever, cunning, in a deceitful way.

I want you to take note of how Satan begins his communication with Eve in the above verse. He is friendly and is simply asking a question, as if curious.

Causes Eve to give consideration

And the woman said unto the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.” Genesis 3:2-3

As you can see, by friendly conversation, Satan has given Eve reason to think about God’s words, and his commandment that she not eats of that one tree. This is also telling us that Eve knew God’s Command and was not ignorant of it, and knowing this, for her to then eat from the tree, she would be in disobedience to the Word and Commandment of God.

Satan’s First Recorded Lie

And the serpent said unto the woman, “Ye shall NOT surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.” Genesis 3:4-5

Satan just called God a liar and a deceiver. First he tells Eve just the opposite of what God had told her, that she would not die, then he adds a little more to put doubt of God’s intentions into Eve’s mind, by telling her that God does not want to have them eat of the tree, for if they do, they will become like Gods. Not exactly, but that is implied.

The Significance

In the above conversation Eve informs Satan of what God told her and Adam, “Thou shall surely die.” Satan’s response to that is, “thou shall not surely die.” In so doing, Satan has changed God’s meaning by simply placing a three letter word between God’s four words. It is in this way that Satan tells some of his lies within the pages of the Bible.

When the Bible has been translated from the ancient texts into the modern languages, Satan has inserted words and even removed words, or given a modern word as the translation for an ancient word that only has a partial or different meaning than the ancient word had. It is because I have come to understand this, why I take the time to give definition not only to the English words from the English dictionary, but I look up the ancient words from the Bible Concordance, so I can know what God's original meaning is, and in this way reveal to you the reader, God's True Word. It is in this way that I reveal my diligence in my study of God's Holy Word as an example as to how you should study and research in your desire to come to know God intimately and personally.

Ninth Prophetic Sign

The Abomination of Desolation

*When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (who so readeth, let him understand :) Matthew 24:15

I see the above verse, as no longer being prophecies of the Dark Ages, but a jump forward in time to the End of Days. I see this as God giving warning that the same anti-Christ of the Dark Ages is still a danger to the Saints of God in the End of Days. Even though the anti-Christ has had its power to arrest, torcher, and murder of the Saints of God removed from it, it still has the ability to cause those who are not diligent in their study of God's True Word, to fall into the lies and deceptions Satan and his anti-Christ has placed in their path.

The abomination of desolation is a reference to the anti-Christ, and the leader of the anti-Christ religion is the Pope of Rome. When you see the leader of the anti-Christ religion, (The Pope) enter into Jerusalem, (the Holy Place), then this prophecy will have come to pass.

The word "Abomination" is defined as: something that is immoral, disgusting, or shameful, a feeling of intense dislike or disapproval toward somebody or something. It is God that refers to the anti-Christ as an abomination; therefore it is God as well as the Saints of God, who find the Church of Rome as immoral, disgusting and shameful. I will attest to this being true, at least by me, for I attempt and endeavor to be a Saint of God.

The word "Desolation" is defined as: Empty, bare uninhabited, and deserted; Alone, solitary, joyless, and without hope, wretched.

Because the Church of Rome and its daughter churches, preach Satan's False Gospel, they are an Abomination. Because those who give worship as Satan's False Gospel dictates, they that belong to these False Churches, are without hope of salvation, and that makes them desolate, even though those that so worship believe themselves to be saved in Christ, because they have been deceived.

The Holy Place does not just mean the Temple Mound, but the area that the ancient city of Jerusalem occupied is also a Holy Place, in that God more than once in scripture refers to Jerusalem as his holy city, and he refers to the mountain that Jerusalem is built on as the Holy Mound.

God caused that the Muslim's would build their Dome of the Rock, on the site of the Temple of Jerusalem so that the Temple could never be built again. The Jews in their generations long slide away from the Law of God, caused the House of God to become, as Jesus refers to it, a den of thieves, this is why God allowed it to be destroyed, not once but twice, first by the Babylonians, then again 600+ years later by the Romans.

Assentation of the False Prophet

*And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. Revelation 13:11-12

To my understanding, the first time a Pope of the Church of Rome, traveled to Jerusalem, was in 1964. Since then, maybe 4 or five more times has the Pope gone there. I asked the question, if the Pope had already gone there, not once but several times, then why wasn't one of those occasions the one that gave fulfillment to this prophecy?

God revealed the answer to this question by showing me the following. There is another Prophecy given by Jesus that needed to occur first before the visit to Jerusalem by the Pope would bring to fulfillment this prophecy, and that is revealed in the above two verses.

In these two verses Jesus is informing us that this the False Prophet receives the power and authority of the first beast. The first beast is the anti-Christ as symbolized in Revelation 13:1-9. All that it describes as things that the anti-Christ has the power to do in those verses is given or assumed by the False Prophet, in that the power of the anti-Christ was taken from it in 1798 by Napoleon.

When in the first several times that the Pope went to Jerusalem, the False Prophet had not yet gained this power and authority, so until it does, the prophecy concerning the abomination of desolation will not be fulfilled.

What Form the Calamity?

When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (who so readeth, let him understand :) Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains.

Matthew 24:15-16

In October of 2013, I am convinced that this assentation of power by the False Prophet did in fact occur, which means, in my understanding that the next time the Pope travels to Jerusalem, the prophecy will be fulfilled, and some kind of calamity will befall the lands of Judea. As it happens, the Pope has gone to Jerusalem on May 30, 2014, so I am in expectation and vigilance of the second half of this prophecy to be fulfilled soon.

If God is telling those in Judea to flee to the mountains, then I see this warning as being the first salvo of the Great War, and as such I see it as an attack on one of the main cities of Judea by some kind of a military strike with heavy damage and loss of life.

I do not see this as being the city of Jerusalem however, for there are other verses that suggest that Jerusalem will still be standing when Jesus returns which won't occur until the end of the Great Tribulation.

I do see it as a good possibility that this could be an attack on Tel Aviv or Beersheba however. As the above verses tell us, it is only those who live in the land of Judea, which need to flee to the mountains when the Pope comes to the holy place. The next sign gives reason why they should flee their homes.

The First Salvo of the Great War

Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house: Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

*And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day: Matthew 24:16-20

We are in the attempt of determining the starting date of when the Great War goes from being a conventional war to that of being a nuclear war. In this effort it is logical that we look at the prophecies as they are given by Jesus and determine what it is that they are showing us.

This prophecy, given by Jesus, is once more a warning concerning the beginning of the Great War. In this prophecy a definitive point in history can be determined, (the date that the Abomination of Desolation stands in the Holy Place), and I believe it is from that date that we can then calculate the time prophecy of One Hour, One Day, One Month and One Year, as given above.

On May 30, 2014 the Pope of the Church of Rome stood upon the Holy Place, when he visited the West Bank territory held by Muslim refugees from the establishment of the Nation of Israel shortly after the Second World War.

I see these verses as a great calamity effecting a large area and population. This also suggests to me, that it will not be an act of nature such as an earthquake, but that it will be an act of war against the Nation of Israel. Because this event is a trigger that initiates the Great War, I feel it must be a military action, else why would it cause Israel to retaliate, which is that which starts the Great War.

The Great War has begun

*Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house: Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day: Matthew 24:16-20

These verses tell of the first salvo of the Great War. With this all having come to past, I am convinced that we are now in the early days of the Great War. From this initial attack on Israel, has come a series of continuing and ever growing events in the Middle East and all around the world, that tells me this is a World War. Even though this war doesn't look like the Second World War with large armies facing off against one another, the conflict is worldwide; therefore, this is a World War.

Time is short; these conflicts will only get bigger and wider spread, until we will have large armies facing off. This is prophesized to occur, and what God tells us is going to happen will happen, of that there is no doubt.

The Third Temple

Many of those who call themselves Christian, and if I am not mistaken, the Jews as well, believe that a third temple will be built during the time that leads up to or are included in the End of Days, but this is a false interpretation of the prophecies given in the book of Daniel and the book of Revelation. There will be no third temple. If you believe that there will be a third temple, then you watch in vain for a sign that will never come. This Satan wants you to do, so it will be too late for you when the Great War begins and Jesus does return.

Time Period: This then is exclusive to the Second Time period which relates to those events that take place just prior to or are the cause of the Great War.

Tenth Prophetic Sign

Nuclear War begins

*For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Matthew 24:21-22

I interpret The Great Tribulation to mean a great war will begin, and then the aftermath of that war. This will be unlike any other war in man's history, because it will be mostly fought with nuclear weapons. I consider the words, "no flesh be saved," as a description of such weapons in that flesh cannot survive the radiation caused from a nuclear explosion. Jesus gives further descriptions latter on in his prophecies that gives added support to the war being fought with nuclear weapons.

An Explanation in review

My interpretation of the Ninth Prophetic Sign is this: The Pope as head of the Church of Satan, the anti-Christ, will go to Jerusalem, which is the Holy Place. The Ninth Sign must follow the first eight in the order given by Jesus, to be in the fulfillment of prophecy of the End of Days.

After the Pope has left Israel, the war will begin, how soon after I can only guess, but I think not long. Why would Jesus tell them in Judea to flee with haste, or that they should not even go back to get their clothes unless things would happen very quickly?

With this prophecy following directly after the one concerning the Abomination of Desolation, is there any wonder why I would have assumed the attack on the Nation of Israel to be a nuclear attack. As I did admit, I had no idea of how soon it would be before the war would go nuclear, and evolve into the Great War as prophesied in the above verses.

First Scenario

I have been watching current geo political events, and therefore I can see a couple of possible scenarios which could result in the war which now rages in many parts of the world will turn nuclear.

At this time, July 2015, the nation of Iran, formally Persia, has developed nuclear weapons and missiles capable of delivering them anywhere within the Eastern Mediterranean region. Israel has historically resorted to preemptive attacks upon its Arab neighbors when it felt its security is threatened. A nation led by lunatics as is the situation in Iran, with nuclear weapons, is a real and immediate threat to Israel, and therefore Israel could attack Iran so as to destroy those weapons before they can be used. That is one possibility.

Second Scenario

Another possible scenario is that Iran, knowing of the likelihood of Israel attacking it, attacks Israel first, with a nuclear attack, which escalates to the world's nuclear powers, such as Russia, China, and the USA into the nuclear war. For this the Eighth Sign to be fulfilled as I have suggested it needs that the Pope has reason to go to Israel, which he has done on May 30, 2014.

I have no way of knowing when the war which now rages in the world will go nuclear, but that is what these prophecies are all about. At least I know what to look for, rather than those who go about their lives in complete ignorance. In that these prophecies are coming to past tells me that we are already in the End of Days however, and I wait in anticipation knowing now that the Pope has gone to Israel and has stood on the Holy Place and Israel was attacked as Jesus said it would be.

There is one other geo political situation that contributes to the instability that exists today in the Middle East, and that is the public disrespect that the American President, Obama, has shown towards Israel, and his open attempts of appeasement and friendship towards those nations, including Iran, that have vowed to destroy Israel.

If a nation like Iran should think that the USA would hold back any support for Israel, it might give them cause to strike. All of these things I think have the possibility of bringing about the start of the nuclear aspect of the Great War and its resulting Great Tribulation that Jesus is giving warning about.

At the time I wrote these above words, I had no idea that the President of the United States would unilaterally give Iran all that he has in the Nuclear Talks just concluded, without any ability of the USA or anyone else having any ability to look and verify Iran's compliance. Such actions, by the Obama Administration, are more like treason against the United States than it is diplomatic wrangling.

Time Period: Because these events are exclusive to the Second Period, it applies only to that period.

Worlds Appeasement of Iran

In July of 2015 the American President, along with several other leaders of the nations of Europe, came to an agreement with Iran that they think will prevent Iran from furthering its efforts at obtaining a nuclear weapon.

In the entire history of the Islamic State of Iran it has not upheld any agreement it has made with any other nation that was not Muslim. For this reason, I have no expectation that Iran will be restrained by this latest agreement either. For this reason, Iran could have a nuclear intercontinental weapon very shortly. In the meantime, with the expansion of Iran's commerce brought about by this agreement, it will have huge amounts of free cash it can then use in its ongoing efforts to give military support of Muslim Extremists throughout the Middle East and elsewhere in the world, causing the world war that is in progress right now to heat up even more.

The above prophecies give me to have certainty that the world war will go nuclear; I am just not sure how much longer that will take. There are no more time prophecies that give us any clear understanding of when the nuclear bombs will start to fall, but, I am confident that all of these prophecies speak of a nuclear holocaust, and because these are prophecies of Jesus, I have no doubt that they will come soon.

Eleventh Prophetic Sign

The Second Advent of Christ

*Then if any man shall say unto you, "Lo, here is Christ, or there;" believe it not, for there shall arise false Christ's, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Matthew 24:23-24

Behold, I have told you before. Wherefore if they shall say unto you, "Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not." Matthew 24:25-26

These verses sound like events that will take place in the End of Days just prior to the Second Coming of Jesus, and they are, however they can be shown to have been happening throughout the history since Jesus ascended into the clouds 2,000 plus years ago.

Jesus returns as Lightning in the sky

*For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Matthew 24:27

So that there will be no doubt as to when Jesus does return, Jesus tells us what to look for.

I am sure that you have seen lightning after dark when the flash of it lights up the entire sky, and the earth that had been in darkness is suddenly lit up as in day light. It is in this fashion that Jesus will announce his arrival. In this you will have no doubt. If you believe that Jesus is among us right now, and you were not first witness to this display of lightning as well as the other signs given below, then the one you think to be Jesus is not, and you are being deceived.

Time Period: This event is exclusive therefore to the Second Time Period.

What Jesus is telling us in this verse is that when he does in fact return, it will be seen by the whole world at the same instant, and that there will be no doubt when it happens. All others that call themselves Jesus before this unmistakable event are false, sent by Satan to deceive and confuse. This is expanded upon by Jesus in the following verse.

Eagles will eat the Dead

For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together. Matthew 24:28

There will be so many who will have died that there will be no one to bury them, that the bodies will be left for the animals to consume.

The Unmistakable Advent of Christ Jesus

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: Matthew 24:29

This verse is very specific, Jesus will not return until after the tribulation of those days. This should tell you, that if there is one who you are looking at that says to you that he is Christ, and the Great Tribulation has yet to occur, then you know now that he who you are looking at is false, and his gospel is the gospel of Satan not of God.

When you see these things being prophesized by Jesus, the Sun and Moon lose their light and the stars falling from the sky, then you will know that Jesus is about to return, without a doubt. These events will happen at the same time, and are therefore distinguishable from other such events not occurring together.

Remember Too: these things will not happen until after or at the end of the Great Tribulation.

True, the people in the war torn areas of the Middle East are now in tribulation, but the Great Tribulation will be felt worldwide, not only regionally.

Jesus Shall Appear

*And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Matthew 24:30-31

All of this will be visible to the entire world of man at the same instant regardless of where on the Earth you are. There will be no doubt, for the gathering of the elect will include the rising from the dead of all those of the Saints of God who have died, as well as the lifting into the clouds all the Saints of God that still live. This will be seen by everyone, even those who are not Saints of God, but corrupted by Satan's False Gospel. God intends that the whole world sees this as it is happening, so those who still were in doubt will realizing their error, repent their sins and convert to the true worship of God as it is founded upon by the keeping of the Ten Commandments.

The earth will mourn at the return of Jesus, because it will bring to an end all that they know. All of man's technology and commerce will have come to an end because of the Great War and the Great Tribulation that is the aftermath of that war. God intends that man shall live as Adam and Eve did before they sinned. With the return of Jesus, Satan will be removed almost immediately, and in time, 1,000 years, Eden will be reinstated on the Earth. Those who live by the flesh and the wealth of this world will mourn, for all that they love will come to an end. The Saints of God will rejoice, for all the promises made by God-Jesus will be fulfilled, and all that they hate about this world and the Ways of Satan will be removed by God-Jesus.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

Matthew 24:32-33

Jesus gives us Parables as a way of giving graphic examples to his prophecies. The following is one such parable.

Those Things Foretold

1. The destruction of the temple in Jerusalem. Fulfilled:
2. Many shall come saying, "I am Christ." Fulfilled:
3. Ye shall hear of wars. Fulfilled:
4. Calamities of Nature. Fulfilled:
5. Many shall be offended, and afflict the Saints of God. Fulfilled:
6. Love shall wax cold; Father shall rise up against son and son against father. Fulfilled:
7. God's True Word will once more be preached. This Web Page is one such example. Fulfilled:
8. The Abomination of Desolation shall stand in the Holy Place. Fulfilled:
9. The Great War Erupts. Fulfilled:
10. The Great War goes nuclear: Not Yet Fulfilled:
11. A period of intense tribulation befalls the entire world: Not Yet Fulfilled:
12. Jesus the Christ returns. Not Yet Fulfilled:

You know when summer is near, when the leaves are almost full on the trees and the apple trees have lost all the color of their blossoms and the fruit is just forming.

So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things. When all these things that are foretold in these verses of Matthew Chapter 24, are fulfilled, then you will know that the Second Advent of Christ is upon us.

This Generation shall not pass

Verily I say unto you, "This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled." Matthew 24:34

The generation being spoken of here is the generation that lives at the time when we wait to see the Abomination of Desolation stand in the holy place. That generation which I am a member of, will not pass until all these things shall come to pass. This tells me that before I die, I will see and have to endure the Great War, and if I survive that, the Great Tribulation and so will all of you reading these words.

The Word of God is Everlasting to Everlasting

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Matthew 24:35

The word of God is everlasting and that which he speaks is certain, a surety that Man can rely on, without doubt or worry. That which God says he will do, and what God says will be done. If you are a Saint of God then you know this to be true, if you doubt this to be true then you are not a Saint of God.

The Day and Hour Unknown

But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. Matthew 24:36

If you have read the story of Noah and the Flood, you will know that while he and his family worked steadfastly upon the construction of the Ark, he preached to the people round about that God had spoken to him and that God had told him that a great flood would come and destroy all flesh upon the earth. You will also know that the people laughed at and made fun of Noah and his family right up until the flood waters swept them away.

I am as Noah, I am the End of Days prophet from God, and this web page is my preaching of God's True Word to you, that God has given me to preach to you. My Ark is the promise that when Jesus returns, he will lift me up into the clouds with him, to be protected from God's wrath that he will inflict upon those who reject God's Word and hold fast to Satan's False Gospel.

I am not able to predict what day and year Jesus will return, until it actually happens, so in this regard, even though God has shown me so much, I still lack that ability.

On the other hand, I did give warning that the Pope would stand in the holy place, and that shortly thereafter the Nation of Israel or at least the area of Judea would be hit by some kind of a military attack, weeks before it happened. I do know from my diligent study of God's Holy Scripture, what signs to look for and I further know that all but the last three prophecies which relate to the Great War and the Second Advent of Jesus Christ, have come to pass.

The Great War goes nuclear: Not Yet Fulfilled:

A period of intense tribulation befalls the entire world: Not Yet Fulfilled:

Jesus the Christ returns. Not Yet Fulfilled:

Because I have watched the geo-political and economic events of the last couple of years, I know Nuclear War is inevitable, and could break out at any time. Therefore, I stand in anticipation and trepidation of these prophesized events.

As in the Days of Noah

*But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Matthew 24:37-39

If you have read the story of Noah and the Flood, you will know that while he and his family worked steadfastly upon the construction of the Ark, he preached to the people round about that God had spoken to him and that God had told him that a great flood would come and destroy all flesh upon the earth. You will also know that the people laughed at and made fun of Noah and his family right up until the flood waters swept them away.

I am as Noah, I am the End of Days prophet from God, and this web page is my preaching of God's True Word to you, that God has given me to preach to you. My Ark is the promise that when Jesus returns, he will lift me up into the clouds with him, to be protected from God's wrath that he will inflict upon those who reject God's Word and hold fast to Satan's False Gospel.

Two in the field

*Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Matthew 24:40-41

Those which will be taken are the Saints of God, and those that will be left behind to suffer God's wrath, will be those who reject or do not believe in the Word of God, which are those who are blinded by Satan's lies, and give worship according to Satan's False Gospel.

Watch and be Ready

Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. But know this that if the Goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Therefore, be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Matthew 24:42-44

Jesus is making an assumption concerning the wisdom of Man. Jesus is saying that if we knew what day and time that Jesus will return, that we as intelligent and prudent people would do everything that we must do, to be ready and worthy of the Rapture. This may be true of those who believe and are therefore the Saints of God, but Man as a whole, I do not find to be wise at all. As in the time of Noah, they think themselves saved and therefore do not need to concern themselves with such inconveniences as God's Truth.

The Faithful Servant

Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, "That he shall make him ruler over all his goods." Matthew 24:45-47

To best understand this verse, you need to have knowledge of the kind of civilization that existed during the time of Jesus. A man of wealth, (the Lord), having land, fields, cattle and orchards, would assign various servants with the responsibility of maintaining these for him. Above all these lesser servants, the Owner, (lord), would assign one man (Ruler) the responsibility for overseeing all the others.

In this parable, the lord is going away for a time, and leaves his good servant, (Ruler), to take care of things until he returns. The meat spoken of here is the sustenance (compensation) given to the servants for their labor, which the lord has given responsibility to the good servant to mead out as required.

When the lord returns from his trip abroad and finds all is well and the good servant has performed his tasks as was expected of him, then the lord will give reward to his good servant.

The Evil Servant

But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, "My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Matthew 24:48-51

On the other hand, if the chief servant is lax in the carrying out of his duties and the lord's property suffers because of this, then the lord will give punishment to his chief servant.

Parable Defined

The word "Parable" is defined as: a short simple to understand story intended to illustrate a moral or religious lesson. With this in mind, we then know that Jesus is not just telling us of this story of a farm owner and his servant, but that he is using this story as a symbolism, intending that we understand his true meaning in the prophecies that he gives us.

The lord is God-Jesus, and after his time on earth in the body of Jesus, he returns to his Father.

His faithful servants are the Saints of God, which he left to continue the work that he began. As given in Jesus' Second Commandment, it is the responsibility of the Saints of God to preach his Holy Gospel to all those that are ignorant of it and will listen.

The Evil servant, are those who have rejected God's True Word. It will be they whom God will pour out his wrath upon in the times of the Great Tribulation. If you give worship to God in anyway other than as God has commanded, then you are an evil person as God defines evil. Either you are with God or you are against God. There is no middle road.

Weeping and gnashing of teeth, is that which will be done by those that worship God as Satan's False Gospel instructs, thinking they are saved in the grace of Jesus, only to find out when they are afflicted with God's plagues, that they are not Saints of God at all.

Time Period: This sign of foretelling of the Second Advent of Christ is exclusive to the end of the Great Tribulation so applies to the Fourth and Fifth Periods.

With these verses we have finished the Prophecies of Jesus as given in the Book of Matthew, we now must go to the Book of Revelation for the rest of Jesus' prophecies that tell of those things that give greater detail of thing to look for leading up to the Great War and to the return of Jesus.

Twelfth Prophetic Sign

The 144,000 Saints of God

*And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, (Zion), and with him an hundred forty and four thousand (144,000), having his Father's name written in their foreheads. Revelation 14:1

The lamb is symbolic of Jesus or as Jesus taught the true and correct worship of God the Father, in other words the true church of Christ.

Mount Sion is a reference not only to the Jews who keep the Commandments of God, which are the descendants of Jacob, as well as others that are not blood descendants of Jacob, that keep the Commandments of God, or else as I have defined to be the Israelites or those who worship God as God commands, and as is preached by Jesus.

Remember: I explained who an Israelite is. The name or designation of an Israelite has to do with why God changed Jacob's name to Israel and that anyone, even those not blood descendants of Jacob, if they overcome their sins and keep the Commandments of God and worship God as he commands, is an Israelite.

With the First Advent of Christ, the definition of an Israelite has been expanded to include those who have the testimony of Jesus Christ. What that means is those who are defined as a Saint of God are also those who are covered under the title of being an Israelite.

With the first advent of Jesus, only those who keep the Commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus can be called Israelites, those that only keep the Commandments of God but reject Jesus, will be treated the same as all who are in defiance of God and his laws.

And with him an hundred forty and four thousand (144,000). The "Him," referred to here is the Church of Christ as symbolized by the Lamb, which might suggest that the 144,000 are, pre-Jesus Israelites who keep the Ten Commandments and have come to accept that Jesus is God in the Flesh of a man. But I am convinced that the 144,000 also include anyone who fit Jesus' definition of who a Saint of God is.

Having his Father's name written in their foreheads thus God has marked them with his name on their foreheads, or given them the Mark of God.

Remember: the name of God is that which gives definition of who God is, based upon the Ten Commandments and the Teachings of Jesus, therefore, the Mark of God on the foreheads of the 144,000 is symbolic of all those that accept and keep the Commandments of God and have the Testimony of Jesus Christ.

A New Song

*And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. Revelation 14:2-3

It is a new song that no other could sing, because it is the story of the Israelites and their long road to salvation. In the persons of the 144,000, God will be able to fulfill his covenant he made with Abraham.

Remember: The Word of God is truth, when he makes a promise, which is what a covenant is; he is bound by his honor and his personality and his moral character to fulfill that promise. Even though the Jews, the stiff necked people that they are, were defiant of God's laws, in the end, there will be at least these 144,000 that will include blood decedents of Jacob as well as others, that God can give fulfillment of his covenant to. I consider this to be the reason that when speaking about the 144,000, God's words are happy even jubilant, his long departed children have finally returned to him.

Not Defiled with Women

*These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the first fruits unto God and to the Lamb. Revelation 14:4

"These are they which were not defiled with women." Others have interpreted this verse to suggest that those who are numbered in the 144,000 having the Mark of God on their foreheads are sexual virgins, who would also suggest that they are all men and no women, but I suggest a different meaning.

Who are the Women?

What God is talking about here, “are they which were not defiled with women” are those who have been redeemed in the true faith, as opposed to those who have not been redeemed. I therefore suggest that the reference to virgins does not refer to a sexual virginity, but a virginity of faith.

The key to understanding this has to do with who the women are that God is talking about. Once you understand who the women are, then you will be able to understand what I am getting at. In Lesson 24, the Judgment of the Harlot, we were shown two women, the “Mother of Harlots, who was a harlot herself, and because it refers to her being a mother, she therefore had children that were also harlots. This then tells us that God is showing these children as being women also, in that they are harlots. It is these women that God is saying that the 144,000 are virgin of.

Remember: these women are symbolisms for the Church of Rome, (the Mother Church), and those Protestant Churches, (children of the harlot), that retained the false traditions and practices of the mother church, the Sunday Sabbath being the most obvious error, making them harlots in the eyes of God.

They which follow the Lamb

That these are they which follow the Lamb withersoever he goeth, tells me that they, the 144,000 are converted from Judaism and of Christians as well as all the other pagan religions established by Satan to confuse and deceive Man, to become fervent adherents to the true worship of God and the teachings of Jesus, those who keep the Commandments of God, and accept that Jesus is God in the flesh of a man, and that the teachings of Jesus, expand upon and fulfill the Law of God.

Redeemed From Among Men

These were redeemed from among men, I suggest this reference to “men,” means from mankind, and not specifically the male of the species. What I suggest these verses to mean however is that in using a generalized phrase, “of Men,” is another way of telling us that not only the descendants of Jacob are numbered in the 144,000 but others who are converted to the true worship of God who are not descendants of Jacob.

The First Fruits

Being the first fruits unto God and to the Lamb. This tells me that when these 144,000 are chosen or should I say have been converted to the true worship of God, that we are in the End of Days, and that the second coming of Jesus is nigh upon us. This reference to being the first harvest relates to the way God-Jesus has portrayed the end of days as a harvest, as is shown in the following parable.

The Parable of the Wheat and the Tares

*The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while the men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? From whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, an enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. Matthew 13:24-30

If you do not see how this parable has any relevance to being the first fruits unto God and to the Lamb, then perhaps you will when you are shown the meaning of this parable.

He that Soweth

He, (Jesus), answered and said unto them, “He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; Matthew 13:37

The word “Sow,” is defined as: to plant seeds, to scatter or plant seed on an area of land in order to grow crops. Jesus preached the fulfillment of the Word of God, which is the good seed that God sowed in the Earth.

The Field

The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; Matthew 13:38

When God established Man on the Earth, he planted Good Seed, in return for the gift of the Earth and giving Man dominion over the Earth and all that lived on it, God established a contract with Man, in return for the gift from God, Man was required to give true and correct worship to God as God Commanded of Man.

The Good Seed

*The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; Matthew 13:38

The good seed are the children of the kingdom (those who keep the Commandments of God and have the Testimony of Jesus), or the Saints of God.

Throughout the ages, there has always been at the very least, a handful of those that could be defined by God as the Saints of God, those who upheld the contract with God that continued the dominion of Man over the Earth.

The Tares

*The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; Matthew 13:38

The word "Tares" is defined as: a weed found growing among crops, usually considered to be darnel. Like the weeds in a field of wheat, the tares of Satan's children grow in the midst of the field of God's crop of Righteous Men, choking off the good and replacing them with the evil.

The tares are the children of the wicked one (Satan) those who worship as is preached by the anti-Christ religions or those other religions that do not accept that Jesus is the Son of God.

The Enemy

The enemy that sowed them is the devil, Satan; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. Matthew 13:39

When Lucifer fell from Grace, and began his war against God and all that God stands for, God changed his name from Lucifer to “Satan,” which means, “The fallen foe.” From that point on, Satan has been the Enemy of God and all those who give worship and obedience to God.

If you fail to give true and correct worship to God because you are deceived by Satan or just because you are disobedient, you become Satan, just as Lucifer did, and as such you are the enemy of God as well.

The Harvest

*The enemy that sowed them is the devil, Satan; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. Matthew 13:39

The harvest is the end of the world; (Second Advent of Jesus). When all of the prophecies given by Jesus in the Book of Matthew as well as those in the Book of Revelation come to pass, then Jesus Christ will return. Upon Jesus’ return, all the Saints of God will be lift up into the clouds with the Christ, (the Harvest), while all those of iniquity and sins will remain on the Earth to be given their punishment through God’s Wrath.

The Reapers

*The enemy that sowed them is the devil, Satan; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. Matthew 13:39

When Jesus returns for the Rapture, it will be the Angels of God that go through the Earth gathering up those of Man who are the Saints of God. Just as a farmer will hire workers to go into the field during harvest time to gather up the crops, so too will the angels gather up the Saints of God.

Burned in the Fire

*As therefore the tares (children of Satan) are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. Matthew 13:40

This is another description of Judgment Day. When all of the Saints of God have been gathered up and removed from among the Children of Satan, those that remain behind will either be the Children of Satan, or those who had no interest at all in religion or Bible Study or any sort of god or deity.

There are many today that call themselves, Atheists, that have declared no allegiance to God or Satan, but if you are not with God, then you are the enemy of God. God does not recognize any neutral positions. Either you Love God, or you Hate God, there is no middle road, no gray areas.

If you are not one of those who are gathered up to Christ by the Angels of God, then on Judgement Day you will be given into the pit of Hell's Fire, where you're very existence will be removed. When the Old Heaven and Old Earth then pass away, and the New Heaven and New Earth replace it, you will never have existed at all.

Gather Out all things that offend

*The Son of man, (Jesus), shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; Matthew 13:41

Those who do not worship God exactly as he commands, are offensive to God.

And because they offend God, on Judgment Day, the Angels shall cast them into a furnace of fire: Which is Hells Fire.

Wailing and gnashing of teeth

*And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Matthew 13:42

The furnace of fire is the fire of hell where you are thrown in your essence, all that you are, will be consumed in eternal death. Think of this as creation in reverse.

This phrase, “there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth,” is a reference to those who call themselves Christian, or adhere to the Jewish or Muslim faith, who think that their religion is the true faith, only to find that they are barred from heaven because they do not worship God as he commands.

When Jesus Raptures the Saints of God up into the clouds with him, those others who will be witness to this will begin to wail and object that they gave worship to God, so why are they being left behind? But they did not worship God as he has commanded, accepting Satan's lies even when being shown God's True Words, as this Web Page is showing you now.

The Righteous Shall Shine Forth

*Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Matthew 13:43

Since Adam and Eve were forced out of Paradise, those who were Righteous in the eyes of God were but a hand full compared to the masses of people that failed to give true and correct worship to God. In all that humanity it was hard to recognize the Righteous out from all those living in evil and sin.

The righteous shine forth because there will be no others left on the Earth after the 1,000 year reign of Jesus. All that will be left will be those who worship God as he commands.

“Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.” This is another portrayal of that phrase again, along with, “He who has wisdom,” among others, which all have the same meaning, “This is important, you need to take notice of what is being said, and you need to do whatever you must so that you will understand.”

Two Choices to make

This parable and these last words are important for those who wish to worship God as he commands. It is for you to study and understand what God is saying to you. There is only two choices for all of us, either we are righteous in the eyes of God, or we are steeped in iniquity. Those who are righteous will be redeemed and know salvation, those who are found to have iniquities, will know the fires of hell. Those are the only two choices, therefore you need to know the truth for yourself, do not accept that which you are told as being the truth, pray to God for guidance, study, research, and learn for yourself that which God is telling you.

The Bible is a book of Warning

The Bible is many things, but one thing you may never have considered it to be is a warning. In the pages of the Bible, God is giving warning after warning of Satan, of his lies and deceptions, and how to see God’s truth, despite those lies.

The words in the Bible are warning us the consequences of not seeking God diligently, and taking the easy road of accepting what others have interpreted the Bible to mean. Just as God sees only right and wrong, black and white, Good and Evil, you only have two choices, Redemption and life Eternal, or Damnation and Eternal Death in the fires of Hell.

No Guile Found

And in their (the 144,000) mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

Revelation 14:5

Just as God is adamant that we worship him as he commands, he will be just as adamant as to whom he invites in to heaven and to whom he gives the gift of Life Eternal. This verse gives warning of this.

The Everlasting Gospel

*And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people. Revelation 14:6

The everlasting gospel is a reference to God's Holy Gospel, and his truth that lies within. As these pages that you have been reading has shown, the Bible as it is during my life time, has words, input there by Satan, that have changed the true meaning of God to that of distortions.

This verse is telling me that this angel will have in his possession the Holy Gospel in its true form and meaning and it will be from this that he will preach God's truth to the entire world. Once this unaltered Holy Gospel is shown to us, and we having then seen God's truth, we will fall away from our false churches and traditions, and turn to God-Jesus and his true worship. It is this Angel who has been preaching to me, and through me you can hear what he has shown me by reading these words on this Web Page.

This verse is also telling me that, included in the 144,000 Sons of Jacob that are redeemed, those of every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, will be given the understanding to worship God as he commands, and when they do they too will be given the Mark of God.

I am convinced that both of these prophecies, the 144,000 being given the Mark of God, and the angel preaching to those of us on the earth, have come to past. I say this because I am convinced that I have been touched by God, and that since then I have been receiving instruction from God and or his angel concerning the knowledge and understanding of scripture. Knowing that this has happened to me, I must assume that it is happening to others as well.

The Immortal Soul

Satan lied when he said that Man is born with an immortal soul.

The primary reason God asks us to “Love Me,” is because he is our creator, and as such warrants our love, respect and our worship. One of the chief enticements that we have to love God is that he offers us Life Eternal as a reward for our having loved him. To understand all that this means, you need to understand that Man does not have an eternal soul naturally. We can only receive Life Eternal as a gift from God as a reward for our worship and love of him.

For this reason, there is no Hell of eternal pain and suffering, as Satan will have us believe. Those who God judges to be unredeemable will be thrown into Hell’s Fire, but that is not the same thing as Hell as it has come to be understood. If you are thrown into Hell’s Fire, your body and soul are consumed by it, and you will know a final death, with no chance of resurrection. It will be an eternal death, with all that you are, all your thoughts and dreams, your life experiences will come to an end, and your light will be extinguished for all the rest of eternity.

As I have shown before, death is as a light bulb; once it is turned off you are dead without consciousness or awareness. Eternal Death is like reverse creation, with no chance of resurrection, and with the passing of the old heaven and earth and the establishment of a new heaven and earth, your death will be as if you had never existed at all.

Death Defined

*And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and Man became a living soul. Genesis 2:7

Because we are not naturally endowed with an eternal soul, it might be helpful if you understand how God defines Death. This is to say that Man does not receive a living soul but is made a living soul. This is to say that Man is both a mortal animal of the earth, but is also, because of God, a living soul as well. But Man soul is not immortal, Man was created with the potential of immortality, but God did not give immortality to Man naturally as God did the Angels.

When our mortal physical body dies, the switch is turned off, and we enter what Jesus referred to as a dreamless sleep. Upon resurrection, God turns the switch back on, and we will once again have life. The period from the death of the body to the resurrection, or the sleep, is as the light bulb, there is no consciousness, nor are we able to have any awareness of who we are, what we are or where we are, for the light is out so we are in a dreamless sleep. Only through resurrection, will our consciousness return to us along with life.

A Dreamless Sleep

The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence. Psalms 115:17

When you are in “Mortal Death,” you go into a dreamless sleep, you neither think, have awareness or any sort of consciousness. This “Mortal Death,” is only a temporary state. God has all the data necessary to restore you to life. This is called the “Resurrection.”

There will be only two resurrections; the first is when God resurrects the Righteous Saints of God, otherwise known as the Rapture. The Second Resurrection occurs after the 1,000 year reign of Jesus as King of the Earth, when all those who have ever lived but did not give true and correct worship to God are returned to life, when they are judged, and either given Salvation or rejected and sent into the Pit of Hell’s Fire.

Do Not Trust Others

Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. Psalms 146:3

Do not trust in what other men have to say about God, for they like you are mortal and return to the dust of the earth as will you. But instead put your trust in God-Jesus, for he is immortal and the architect of this universe and only by him and by his pleasure will you have the potential for life eternal.

God wants that we each, for ourselves, take the time and effort to seek for God’s True Word. If you rely on others to tell you what the meaning of the Holy Scripture are, then you risk that person being blinded by Satan’s lies, and you becoming blinded because of your reliance on others.

Thoughts Perish

His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish. Psalms 146:4

His thoughts perish should reveal to you that Man does not have an eternal soul; it is a gift from God to those who obey his word.

When your breath leaves you, and your heart stops beating, and your brain goes silent, then your thoughts perish. The body goes into decay and returns to the earth from which your body was made.

The Resurrection and the Life

Jesus said unto her, " I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? John 11:25-26

This can easiest be understood when you put it in the context of the Second Advent of Christ and the Rapture.

Though he were dead, yet shall he live: In the Rapture, those who believed in Jesus that are dead and in their graves will be the first resurrected from their graves and lifted up to be with Jesus.

Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. After the Rapture of the dead in God, those yet alive, will be lifted up to be with Jesus in the clouds as well. Those who are yet alive will never know the mortal death; for once they have been lifted up into the clouds they will receive the gift of eternal life.

Two Choices

Be aware, every man who has ever lived will be resurrected by God, however there are only two possible results of this resurrection.

1. Either you in life walked in the Spirit of the Lord, in complete observance of the Ten Commandments and the teachings of Jesus.
2. Or you did not and you lived your life in your own pleasure.

The first possibility will give life eternal to you.

The second will give you eternal death, which is as I have just defined it except that when you are thrown into the pit of hell, you will be as if you had never been. The Death of being thrown into the pit of Hell is like creation in reverse. You will simply cease to exist, and there will be no memory that you ever did exist. Not even God will remember you.

If you put these last two verses in the context of the Second Advent of Jesus, those that are dead and believed in Jesus, are resurrected into eternal life, those who are yet alive with his second coming, will never know death, for when they are taken up (Raptured) to Jesus into the clouds, they will be given life eternal having never known death.

To Earn Eternal Life

To believe in Jesus requires more from you than just declaring that Jesus is your savior, there are three things that you must do to earn eternal life and entry into heaven.

First: Learn the Morality of God, and then make it your morality. Understand God's Morality and integrate it into your personality, personal honor, and your moral character, to the point that God's Morality are no longer laws written upon two tables of stone but an integral part of who you are, that they no longer are laws but a way of thinking, and a way of life for you personally. It is in this way that the Saints of God are above the law, because it is no more a law that must be kept, but a part of their own personality and way of thinking.

Second: Worship God as he commands that you must.

A: Put no other God before him.

B: Have no idols, statues, paintings, etc. that have a religious connotation.

C: Do not kneel down before these idols, and give worship to them or give any service to them.

D: Do not take the name of God in vain, which also means to show respect to all of the Commandments of God and the teachings of Jesus.

E: Keep the Lords Holy Sabbath, on the Seventh Day of the week as spelled out in the Fourth Commandment.

Immortality of the soul

And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, “Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.” Genesis 2:16-17

Man is not naturally immortal, the second death, or that which you have after judgment, and are then thrown into the pit of Hell’s Fire is Eternal Damnation, death, from which there will be no resurrection.

You shall surely die

And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die.” Genesis 3:4

In the above verses, God spoke the truth, it took a few years, but Adam and Eve did die the mortal death, it was Satan who lied. As to whether Adam and Eve are thrown into Hell’s Fire on Judgment Day is dependent upon the Mercy of God and whether they gave repentance of their sin, and asked God to forgive them.

How Satan Tells his Lies

There is another meaning to the above verses; in these verses God is showing us how Satan tells his lies. God said, “thou shalt surely die” but Satan tells Eve, “Ye shall not surely die.” By placing a simple three letter word, “NOT”, into the words spoken by God, Satan has changed the meaning 180 degrees from what God’s intended meaning is. It is in this way that Satan lies to us, by changing the meaning of God’s Holy Gospel. In this way Satan establishes Satan’s False Gospel. Knowing this will help you to see Satan’s lies imbedded into the Bible removing the Bible as God’s Holy Gospel to a book filled with Satan’s lies. This is why God tells us, “I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently shall find me.” Proverbs 8:17 Even though Satan has put his lies in the Bible, God’s truth is still there as well, you only need to study and research, as this Web Page is showing you how, to insure that what you are reading are God’s words and not Satan’s.

Time Period: This prophetic sign concerning the 144,000 redeemed by God refers to the Second Period, in that they will receive the Mark of God just prior to the start of the Great War.

Thirteenth Prophetic Sign

Babylon the Great

*Saying with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven and the earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. Revelation 14:7-8

The word "Fear" as used in this verse means: Respect or Awe for somebody or something.

You see, God does not want you to be frightened of him, but to have respect for him and be in awe of his creation and his majesty.

As you might recall, I suggested that this city, Babylon the Great, is in fact the City of Rome, Italy. If you wish to go to the Book of Daniel, Chapters 3, 4, and 5, you will I think understand this reference of the inequities of Babylon and how they relate to Rome, Italy, which is the capital of the Roman Catholic Church, which is called the Mother Church of the Christian religions.

Image of the Beast

*And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:" Revelation 14:9-10

If you do not worship God exactly as he commands, neither adding to that worship or subtracting from it, then there is only one judgment for you, Eternal Death, and it is by your death, that God will quell his indignation that you, knowing the truth, or at the very least having access to God's True Word, still choose Satan's lies, because the lie required no work or effort on your part. The First Day Sabbath is Satan's Lie, and as such those that observe Sunday as the Sabbath Day are in opposition to God, and will feel the full measure of God's wrath.

Please take note: that the above verses do not say that you will burn for all eternity, only that you will burn in the presence of the holy angels and the Lamb, God-Jesus. Man does not have an eternal soul naturally; therefore, this is a reference to eternal death not eternal pain and suffering.

The smoke ascends forever

And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Revelation 14:11

As you can see, it is the smoke of their torment, (Death), that ascendeth up for ever and ever. This does not say that they are tormented forever. We must give the meaning to the words that the words mean and not attempt to give more or less meaning to those words spoken by God.

And they have no rest day nor night, refers to those who in life fail to give true and correct worship to the God of Creation, not to those that have been thrown into the fires of Hell.

Remember Too: Hell refers to death itself and not Satan Lair.

Defining the Saints of God

Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the Commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. Revelation 14:12

Faith is having the belief that Jesus is God in the flesh of a man, and that the morality that Jesus teaches is a fulfillment or a bringing to completion of the Ten Commandments.

To have "Faith" in Jesus is to accept fully all that Jesus Taught as well as the fact that Jesus is the Prophesized Messiah.

Therefore one who is a Servant of God is by definition, one who keeps the Ten Commandments, and accepts Jesus as God in the flesh of a man, and the teachings of Jesus, and thereby is one who loves, obeys and worships the true God, as he commands.

Once more God has given definition to what it means to be a Saint, are you paying attention? Let those who have wisdom, understand. God has just defined those that he considers to be his saints, they that keep the commandments of God (The Ten Commandments), and the faith of Jesus. Can you say in all honesty, that you fit this definition? To keep the Commandments of God, is to keep all Ten of God's Commandments, just as the words in those commandments tell us to do. If you ignore a word or give meaning to a word that it is not intended to have, then you fail to keep the Commandments of God, and are therefore not a Saint of God.

Blessed are the dead in Christ

And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, "Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

Revelation 14:13

The reference to that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them, refers to the righteousness of their lives or the fact that they kept the Ten Commandments, and did not succumb to Satan's lies, or at the very minimum, saw the error of their ways, and repented those sins, and asked God for his forgiveness, before they died the mortal death. God can only forgive you if you ask him for forgiveness, if you do not ask him, you will not be forgiven. If you fail to ask him for his forgiveness before you die the mortal death, then it will be too late for you.

Why must we ask God to forgive us?

You might ask, "Why must I ask God for forgiveness?" When you sin you are giving insult to God. He has made you a living soul; as such he has made you greater than all the other animals of nature. In return for this he expects and commands that you live your life within a framework of rules, which he God established for us to live by. When you sin you are in opposition to those rules, and are therefore insulting God. This is why you must repent your disobedience and then ask your Father in Heaven for his forgiveness.

Fourteenth Prophetic Sign

Rapture, Second Advent of Christ

*And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel come out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. Revelation 14:14-16

As you can see, God once more uses the analogy of a harvest of crops to symbolize the Rapture. These verses are a reference to what has come to be called the Rapture and the Saints of God are being symbolized as the harvest to be gathered in.

He who sits upon the cloud is Jesus,

Those being reaped are the saints of God,

They are being taken up into the clouds with Jesus. If you compare these verses with the Parable of the Wheat and the Tares, which I gave you earlier, I think you will understand them better.

The Reaper

And another angel come out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

Revelation 14:17

The first angel who sat on a white cloud is Jesus, as depicted in the Second Advent of Christ, whereas this second angel is not Jesus, but like Jesus has a sharp sickle.

Power over Fire

*And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to that had the sharp sickle, saying, thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. Revelation 14:18

Power over Fire, tells us that this angel is one of those referred to in the Parable of the Wheat and the Tars, as one of the Reapers who throws the Tars into the fire.

Vines of the Earth

*And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to that had the sharp sickle, saying, thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. Revelation 14:18

The phrase, "vines of the earth" is a reference to those who take their pleasure of the wealth of the Earth rather from the promises and worship of God.

These being reaped are those who do not keep the Commandments of God, and/or worship God in a way other than that which he commands.

Remember: in the Parable of the Wheat and the Tars, those being reaped would be sorted as weeds out from the good grain. These being reaped in the above verse is in reference to the weeds, and that they will be tied in bundles then thrown into the fire to be disposed of.

Wine Press of God's Wrath

And the angel thrust in his sickle in to the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs (200 miles).

Revelation 14:19-20

As you can see, these are being subjected to the wrath of God; therefore they are not the Saints of God, but those who reject or refuse to give true and correct worship to God. In the above parable analogy, they are the weeds.

Thus we are past the Second Coming of Jesus, and as of these verses, he is here and has taken to himself all the dead who died for their faith in the true worship of God, as well as all who remained alive on Earth that keep the Ten Commandments, and accept that Jesus is God in the flesh of a man.

Those That Remain on the Earth

Those who now remain on the Earth fall into two groups:

Poor in Faith

Those who had no religious interest or leanings, and who did not give worship according to Satan's False Gospel, those that Jesus has referred to as those who are Poor In Faith.

Those Deceived by Satan

Those who did not refuse to give true and correct worship of God, but because of their ignorance failed to keep the Commandments of God, or who did not know Jesus to be God in the flesh of a man, because of Satan's deceptions.

These are also those who do not give worship to the image of the Beast, which means that they did not go to the churches of the anti-Christ or other places of worship of other religions. In short, these are those that have no interest in religion, the Bible or any other form of worship.

Even though they failed to do so, they would have given true worship of God if not for their ignorance, do to Satan's Lies and deceptions. In this God knows the truth, because he can see into the soul and mind of his children.

All those who worshiped in the churches of the false religions that teaches the gospel of Satan, and keeps another day as the Sabbath, or no day at all, and did not knowingly reject God's True Word, because of Satan's lies and deceptions, will be given more time to repent their sins, or at least their descendants will, during the One Thousand years of the Reign of Jesus. It will be they who Jesus and the Saints of God rule over for the thousand years.

The above is my understanding with what God has shown me thus far. God has not shown me everything at once. He is constantly giving more information as I study and learn. For this reason, that which I have suggested above may or may not be correct. I give it to you to give you reason to think about the Word of God, and hopefully take it upon yourselves to also study and learn. If you want to be in communication with God as I am, you can only do so if you make an effort to get to know what God stands for and what he commands of you.
